

PEACE CORPS

Washington 25, D. C.

March 22, 1961

Dear Mr. Evans:

We have to date taken the following steps with respect to the designation of sensitive positions under Executive Order 10450 and to obtaining the necessary clearances for individuals who are expected to fill those positions.

The following proposed positions (which may eventually be given somewhat different titles) will be designated as sensitive: Director, Deputy Director, Director's personal secretary, Executive Secretary, General Counsel, Director of Contracts, Director for Planning and Evaluation, Director of Private Agency Relations, Director of University Relations, Associate Director for Program Development and Operations, Associate Director for Peace Corps Personnel, Associate Director for Public Affairs and Community Participation, and Associate Director for Management.

Of the persons expected to fill these positions, I understand from you that the following have already been investigated or that investigations of them are currently in progress:

Thomas H. E. Quimby
Lawrence E. Dennis
William Haddad
Edwin R. Bayley
Gordon Boyce
Albert G. Sims
Morris B. Abram

Additionally, I understand that Mr. Shriver's clearance will be arranged by the White House.

Mr. Courtney Evans
